List of issues prior to submission of the sixth periodic report of Germany

ADVANCE UNEDITED VERSION

The Committee against Torture, at its thirty-eighth session (A/62/44, paras. 23 and 24), established an optional procedure which consists in the preparation and adoption of a list of issues to be transmitted to the State party concerned prior to the submission of its periodic report. The replies of the State party to this list of issues will constitute its report under article 19 of the Convention.

Articles 1 and 4

1. Please provide information on any steps taken by the State party to incorporate the specific crime of torture into its general criminal law (the Criminal Code and the Military Penal Code) and not only in its Code of Crimes against International Law, as has repeatedly been recommended by the Committee in previous concluding observations (CAT/C/DEU/CO/5, para. 9). Please also indicate if the State party intends to amend section 340(1) (causing bodily harm while exercising a public office) and section 224 (causing grievous bodily harm) of the Criminal Code, and sections 30 (ill-treatment) and section 31 (degrading treatment) of the Military Penal Code, with a view to ensure that the infliction of pain or suffering, whether physical or mental, for the purposes indicated in article 1 of the Convention, by a public official or other person acting in an official capacity is considered torture and is punished with increased penalties than the ones currently foreseen, to take into account its grave nature, in accordance with article 4, paragraph 2, of the Convention.¹

2. In the light of the previous concluding observations (para. 10) please indicate which steps have been taken by the State party to raise awareness among all public authorities across Landër, and specifically among the judiciary, of the rights set forth in the Convention, so that they can give effect to those rights. Also please indicate if the Convention, including the definition of torture set out in article 1, has been directly applied by the domestic courts since November 2011, both at the federal and Länder levels, and, if so, please cite those cases.²

Article 2³

3. With reference to the previous concluding observations (para. 12), please provide information on measures taken by the federal government to guide and assist individual

³ The issues raised under article 2 could also imply different articles of the Convention, including but not limited to article 16. As general comment No. 2, paragraph 3, states: “The obligation to prevent torture in article 2 is wide-ranging. The obligations to prevent torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment (hereinafter ‘ill-treatment’) under article 16, paragraph 1, are indivisible, interdependent and interrelated. The obligation to prevent ill-treatment in practice overlaps with and is largely congruent with the obligation to prevent torture. In practice, the definitional threshold between ill-treatment and torture is often not clear.” See also chapter V of the same general comment.
Länder in the adoption and application of legislative and policy measures in the context of law enforcement, including with regard to prison administration and the use of physical restraints (and the practice of Fixierung), in order to guarantee that the standards and safeguards set forth in the Convention are protected evenly and applied consistently in all Länder.

4. Please inform the Committee on the steps taken at federal and Länder level to ensure that the relevant written information setting out the rights of persons in police custody is systematically given to such persons immediately upon their arrival at a police station, and that information on the possibilities to benefit from lawyers’ emergency counselling services is included in the written information, as recommended by the European Committee for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (CPT). Please also indicate whether any amendments have been made to section 114b, paragraph 2, of the Code of Criminal Procedure (StPO), with a view to clearly define the exceptions to the detainees’ right of notification to a family member or another trusted person, and in order to ensure that the exceptions are applied for as short a time as possible and with the appropriate safeguards, as recommended by CPT. Are there any mechanisms to control that all persons in police custody can effectively benefit, if they so wish, from access to a lawyer during police questioning, as recommended by the CPT, and not only when being questioned by a public prosecutor or a judge? How does the State party ensure across Länder that the police questioning is always suspended for a reasonable time pending the arrival of the lawyer?

5. Bearing in mind the Committee’s previous concluding observations (para. 13), and the recommendation of the Subcommittee on Prevention of Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (SPT) during its April 2013 visit to Germany, please provide detailed data on the human and financial resources that the National Agency for the Prevention of Torture has been provided. Please explain how these resources are sufficient for it to carry out its functions effectively and independently. Also please explain how the appointment process of the head of the Federal Agency for the Prevention of Torture and the members of the Joint Commission of the Länder comply with the requirements of independence, transparency and inclusiveness established in paragraph 16 of the Guidelines on national preventive mechanisms (CAT/OP/12/5) adopted by the SPT.

6. Please inform the Committee if there have been any instances, since the consideration of the previous State report, in which the National Agency for the Prevention of Torture announced its intention to visit a place of detention prior to its visit, or was requested to do so in order to gain access, at the federal or Länder levels. Please also inform whether the National Agency was ever prevented from gaining regular and timely access to places of detention since November 2011 and what steps were taken to prevent such incidents.

7. In light of the Committee’s previous concluding observations (para. 14) with regard to the National Agency for the Prevention of Torture, please provide:

(a) Information on the State party’s efforts to regularly disseminate, using all appropriate means of communication, the National Agency’s recommendations as well as the measures taken by the State party to ensure the effective implementation of these recommendations;

(b) Updates on compilations of the National Agency’s best practices and trainings carried out to the National Agency’s personnel since November 2011;

(c) Information on steps undertaken to enhance cooperation and coordination between the Joint Commission of the Länder and the existing bodies in the different Länder mandated to carry out preventive visits to places of detention, such as the petitions committees.\(^7\)

8. Please report on the Federal and Länder’s government analysis of the results of the 2012 study by the Kriminologische Forschungsinstitut Niedersachsen (Criminological Research Centre Lower Saxony) on violence experienced by prison inmates. What measures, if any, will the respective governments take as a result of the study?

9. With reference to the previous concluding observations (para. 15) and the phenomenon of trafficking in persons, please provide, from November 2011:

(a) Updated information on all appropriate measures, including awareness raising campaigns, taken by the State party to prevent all forms of trafficking in persons. Is there a methodology in the State party to assess the effectiveness and impact of all the initiatives to combat trafficking?\(^8\)

(b) Information on how the State party has strengthened its efforts to combat different forms of trafficking, including with regard to the improvement of identification of victims and intervention, specifically for child trafficking and prostitution, and strengthening cooperation with countries of origin, transit and destination. Please also indicate whether any training was provided on the subject to police, prosecutors and judges. Please clarify whether trafficking in persons for purposes other than sexual or labour exploitation is penalised in the State party;\(^9\)

(c) Up-to-date statistical data disaggregated by age, sex, country of origin, ethnicity and employment sector of the victim, on the number of victims of trafficking, as well as the number of complaints, investigations, prosecutions and convictions, and the type of punishments imposed on convicted perpetrators on an annual basis;\(^10\)

(d) Updates on the means of redress provided to victims, including compensation, legal, medical, psychological aid and rehabilitation, as well as information on the successes and constraints of the national programmes to protect, assist and support all victims and witnesses of trafficking, including those who do not cooperate with the investigations,\(^11\) indicating the number of shelters and their occupancy rate, and efforts to provide temporary residence permits and protection against return to all victims and witnesses of trafficking, particularly when the persons would be in danger of torture in their countries of origin.\(^12\) potential victims of trafficking among asylum-seekers, as referred to in the previous concluding observations (para. 7).

10. With regard to domestic and gender based violence, please provide information, from November 2011, on:

   (a) Measures taken to strengthening the prevention, investigation and punishment of all forms of violence against women and children, including domestic violence.\textsuperscript{13} Is there a methodology in the State party to assess the effectiveness and impact of all the initiatives in this area? Please also provide information regarding measures taken to protect groups made particularly vulnerable, such as women and girls of Turkish and Russian origin;\textsuperscript{14}

   (b) Statistical data, disaggregated according to the type of crime and the age and sex of the victim, on an annual basis, on the number of complaints received, the number of investigations and prosecutions carried out, the number of convictions and the types of penalties imposed;\textsuperscript{15}

   (c) Updates on the means of redress provided to victims, including legal, medical, psychological aid and rehabilitation, as well as on the successes and constraints of the national programmes to protect, assist and support all victims, including victims with psychosocial disabilities,\textsuperscript{16} indicating the number of shelters and their occupancy rate.\textsuperscript{17}

11. With reference to the previous concluding observations (para. 34), please describe measures taken to fully implement the provisions of international human rights instruments, in particular in the context of counter-terrorism measures.

\textbf{Article 3}

12. Please provide statistical data, since the consideration of the previous report and on an annual basis, disaggregated by sex, country of origin, and by whether the applicant is a minor or an adult, as well as disaggregated according to the type of asylum procedure applicable (regular procedure or the “fast-track” airport procedure), concerning:

   (a) The number of asylum requests registered;

   (b) The number of asylum requests or humanitarian protection granted and the average processing period per year;

   (c) The number of applicants whose requests were granted because they had been tortured or because they might be tortured if they were to be returned to their country of origin;

   (d) The number of those who have been returned, extradited or deported and the grounds on which they were sent back, including a list of countries to which individuals were returned;

   (e) The number of appeals challenging a decision of expulsion, return or deportation on the basis of danger for the applicant to be subjected to torture or other forms of ill-treatment, and their outcome, as well as the average processing period of the appeals per year;

\textsuperscript{17} CAT/C/DEU/Q/5/Add.1, para.24-26.
(f) The number of cases in which refugee status was revoked, and the number of appeals lodged in these cases on the basis of danger for the applicant to be subjected to torture or other forms of ill-treatment, as well as the outcome. ¹⁸

13. Please provide information on measures taken by the federal and Länder authorities to ensure that asylum-seekers are systematically given access to independent, qualified free-of-charge procedural legal counselling before a hearing is carried out, as recommended in the previous concluding observations (para. 23). Please also indicate which measures have been taken to ensure that legal aid is provided to asylum-seekers in order to allow them to appeal a negative decision.

14. With reference to the previous concluding observations (para. 21), please inform the Committee if the State party has prolonged the suspension of forced transfers of asylum-seekers to Greece under the Dublin Regulation (Council Regulation (EC) No. 343/2003) until the reception conditions improve in the country of return. ¹⁹ Please also inform the Committee on the steps undertaken to ensure that asylum seekers were not being put in situations where there were no adequate reception conditions in the reception country before they were transferred to other EU States, under the Dublin Regulation. ²⁰

15. In light of the previous concluding observations (para. 22), the State party’s follow-up replies ²¹ and the Committee’s follow-up letter, please provide information about the status of any amendments to article 34a, paragraph 2, of the German Law on Asylum Procedure, with a view to guarantee by law a stay of execution, for as long as is necessary, of the decision to transfer an asylum-seeker to another State participating in the Dublin system when a well-substantiated appeal claiming that deportation would give rise to a risk of torture or ill-treatment has been presented against the impugned decision, in compliance with the previous concluding observations and the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) Case no. 30696/09, M.S.S. v Belgium and Greece. ²² Please also indicate, since November 2011, in how many cases in which an appeal was lodged on the grounds that deportation would give rise to a risk of torture or ill-treatment, an interim measure suspending the transfer or deportation of the concerned individual was adopted. ²³ Please also indicate in how many of those cases in which an appeal was lodged, the decision on the appeal was adopted after the expulsion or transfer order was executed.

16. With reference to the previous concluding observations (para. 24), and the State party follow-up replies ²⁴, please clarify whether the initial medical checks of all asylum-seekers are systematic and mandatory and include examination of mental illnesses or traumatisation across Länder. ²⁵ Please also clarify if the individuals who carry out the initial medical checks of asylum-seekers in all Länder detention facilities are independent qualified health professionals and describe how their independence is assured. ²⁶ Please also indicate the number of cases in which a detained asylum-seeker has requested an additional advisory physician at his or her own cost, specifying how many times the request was refused and how many times granted, since the consideration of the previous State report. ²⁷ Also please indicate the number of special asylum officers “for victims of torture and

17. Please report on whether the State party intends to exclude unaccompanied minors from the so-called “Airport procedure” under article 18 of the Law on Asylum Procedure, as recommended by this Committee in its previous concluding observations (para. 27) and by the European Commission against Racism and Intolerance (ECRI)29. Please also clarify whether an individual risk assessment is carried out in asylum applications under this procedure.30

Articles 5, 7 and 8

18. With reference to the previous concluding observations (para. 28), the State party follow-up replies and the Committee’s follow-up letter,31 please indicate the status of the investigation of the Munich I State Attorney’s Office with regard to the case of Khaled El-Masri, and whether the suspected individuals have been extradited to the State party. Also please indicate if the State party has undertaken any efforts to ensure that Mr. Khaled El-Masri obtains redress, including rehabilitation, in view of the determination of the ECHR that Mr. Khaled El-Masri had been subjected to torture.32

19. Please indicate whether the State party has rejected, for whatever reason, an extradition request concerning a person suspected of having committed acts of torture and whether, as a result, it decided to initiate prosecution proceedings itself, since the Committee’s consideration of the preceding report. If applicable, please give details on the status and outcome of such proceedings.

Article 10

20. In the light of the previous concluding observations (para. 29), please provide information on the measures taken to ensure that training on the Manual on Effective Investigation and Documentation of Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (Istanbul Protocol) is provided on a regular and systematic basis to all law enforcement, medical and other personnel across the Länder involved in holding persons in custody, interrogation or treatment of any individual under any form of detention or imprisonment, as well as to all asylum officers and not only to those specialised on victims of torture.33 Please mention whether such training focuses also on detecting psychological traces of torture and whether the training materials are available on the Internet.34

21. In the light of the previous concluding observations (para. 32), please provide an update on efforts to provide appropriate and on-going public education, including awareness-raising campaigns, and professional training on the prohibition of corporal punishment in all settings.35

Articles 11

23. With reference to the Committee’s previous concluding observations (para. 16) on the use of physical restraints, and the State party’s follow-up replies,\textsuperscript{37} please provide information on:

(a) The steps taken by authorities at federal and Länder levels to strictly regulate and harmonise the permissible means of restraint and their use in all settings across the Länder, including prisons, psychiatric hospitals, residential homes, juvenile prisons, detention centres of foreigners and during court hearings,\textsuperscript{38} with a view to abandon the use of physical restraints at least in all non-medical settings and, ultimately, in all settings;\textsuperscript{39}

(b) Trainings for law enforcement and other personnel that have been undertaken in the State party on the use of permissible restraints, with a view to ensure the effective implementation in all Länder of the minimum standards drawn up by different human rights bodies;\textsuperscript{40}

(c) Oversight mechanisms that exist in the State party to monitor the use of methods of restraint, including the practice of Fixierung, in all settings;\textsuperscript{41}

(d) Number of complaints, investigations, and disciplinary or criminal sanctions, if any, imposed on any personnel for improper use of restraints, including the practice of Fixierung and the use of seclusion and physical restraints on dementia sufferers in residential homes,\textsuperscript{42} since the consideration of the previous State report.\textsuperscript{43}

24. In particular with relation to the practice of Fixierung, please clarify in which Länder this practice continues to be used, which constraints the State party faces to abandon this practice, at least, in all non-medical settings across the Länder, as recommended by the CPT, and in which ways these constraints will be addressed.\textsuperscript{44}

25. Please provide information on the steps taken by the State party to ensure that, whenever injuries which are indicative of ill-treatment are recorded by prison healthcare staff, the record is systematically and confidentially brought to the attention of the relevant prosecutor, regardless of the wishes of the person concerned, as recommended by the CPT.

26. Please provide updated information on the measures undertaken by the State party to ensure, in the Länder concerned, that prisoners subjected to a disciplinary sanction are systematically provided with a copy of the disciplinary decision and informed in writing of the possibilities of lodging an appeal, as recommended by the CPT.

27. In light of the Committee’s previous concluding observations (para.17), please provide information on whether any amendments have been made to the provisions of the Criminal Code and the Youth Courts Act with a view to strictly restrict the use of post-conviction preventive detention, in compliance with the judgment of the Federal

Constitutional Court of 4 May 2011.\textsuperscript{45} Please explain in detail the current legal safeguards for the imposition and duration of post-conviction preventive detention, indicating whether regular periodic reviews by an independent body are foreseen to determine the continued justification of the detention, with a view to release those detained or to shorten the period of their detention.\textsuperscript{46} Please also indicate if the detention conditions applicable to persons subject to post-conviction preventive detention across Länder are distinct from the treatment of convicted prisoners, and whether they are aimed at the detainees’ rehabilitation and reintegration into society, as recommended by the Human Rights Committee.\textsuperscript{47} In this regard, please indicate how the State party will address the shortcomings identified by the CPT in Freiburg prison.\textsuperscript{48} Please also indicate whether all the decisions imposing post-conviction preventive detention in the period between the adoption of the above-mentioned judgment and the adoption of new legislation have been reviewed by the correctional courts according to the principles set by the judgment.\textsuperscript{49} Please also provide data, disaggregated according to the type of offence, on an annual basis and since the consideration of the last State report, on the number of persons subjected to post-conviction preventive detention and the length of their detention.\textsuperscript{50}

28. In light of the Committee’s previous concluding observations (para.24), the State party follow-up replies\textsuperscript{51} and the Committee’s follow-up letter, please provide information, since the consideration of the previous report and on an annual basis, on the total number of asylum seekers that were held in Länder detention facilities, specifying whether the asylum seeker is a minor under the age of 18, unaccompanied or as part of a family, and indicating the number of those who were subjected to transfer in the context of the Dublin Regulation.\textsuperscript{52} Please also indicate on an annual basis the length of their detention, prior to transfer, release or expulsion.\textsuperscript{53} What measures have been taken to ensure that all Länder adopt a uniform policy that detention of asylum seekers, and particularly of minors, should be resorted to for the shortest appropriate period and as a means of last resort?\textsuperscript{54} Please clarify if the State party has taken any measures to adopt or broaden the application of non-custodial alternatives to detention of asylum seekers.\textsuperscript{55}

29. Also with reference to the previous concluding observations (para. 24), and the State party follow-up replies,\textsuperscript{56} please indicate which Länder have not yet ensured that asylum-seekers and other immigration detainees are accommodated in centres specifically designed for that purpose, meeting the criteria and recommendations set out by CPT and, as a minimum, kept physically separate from remanded or sentenced prisoners. Please also inform the Committee on the number of immigration detainees that are kept together with remanded or sentenced prisoners in those Länder, and whether their conditions of detention reflect the nature of their deprivation of liberty, with more limited restrictions. Please indicate which steps are being undertaken to ensure separation of immigration detainees in these Länder in the future.57

30. In the light of the previous concluding observations (para. 25), please provide information on the progress made to refrain from seeking and accepting diplomatic assurances under any circumstances, both in the context of extradition and deportation of foreign nationals.58 Please clarify whether diplomatic assurances were sought or accepted in cases of extradition or deportation since the consideration of the previous report.

31. Bearing in mind the Committee’s previous concluding observations (para. 26), please provide information on concrete steps taken to implement the recommendations of the 2009 Parliamentary Commission of Inquiry, in particular to initiate the Federal Government’s investigation into the alleged involvement of law enforcement officers of the State party in rendition and secret detention programmes. Please also inform the Committee about any measures taken to prevent future similar incidents and implement the recommendations of the United Nations joint study on global practices in relation to secret detention in the context of countering terrorism (A/HRC/13/42).

Articles 12, 13 and 14

32. Please indicate which measures have been taken at federal and Länder level to ensure that all allegations of torture and ill-treatment by the police are investigated by independent bodies, with no institutional or hierarchical connection between the investigators and the alleged perpetrators, at Police and Public Prosecution Offices, as required by the Committee’s previous concluding observations (para. 19).59

33. In the light of the previous concluding observations (para. 30) and the State party follow-up replies,60 please indicate if the requirement for police to wear identification in Rhineland-Palatine, Schleswig-Holstein, North Rhine-Westfalia and Lower Saxony have been implemented and applied systematically and if any other Länder have made progress in this regard since the consideration of the State report.61 Please also clarify which Länder do not presently require police to wear identification while performing official functions, other than in covert operations, and indicate what measures the State party is taking to address this situation.62 Has the State party taken any steps to undertake a broader assessment of the impact of the failure of police to wear identification badges on the effective investigation of allegations of excessive force by police officers?63

34. Please provide updated data on an annual basis, disaggregated by crime committed and sex, age, nationality and ethnicity of the individual filing the complaint, on the number of complaints of torture, or of other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment64 committed in all contexts of custody or control, such as police custody, prisons, hospitals, institutions that engage in the care of the aged, children or disabled and other places of administrative detention, since the consideration of the previous State report. Please also provide information on investigations, prosecutions, convictions and penalties in relation to such complaints. Please also specify how many cases of alleged ill-treatment by the police could not be elucidated or prosecuted because of lack of identification of the alleged perpetrator.

35. Please provide the information required in paragraph 46 of the Committee’s general comment No. 3 (2012) on the implementation of article 14 in the State party. In relation to subparagraphs h, l, and n) of paragraph 46, please specify, among others, which steps have been taken to ensure that the complaint mechanisms within the Federal and Lännder Police guarantee the same standards of independence, confidentiality and protection to persons who are in vulnerable situations, such as police custody, and report a case of alleged police misconduct or ill-treatment. With regard to subparagraph h), please specify, among others, the measures undertaken to widely publicise the different procedures for filing a complaint in cases of misconduct and ill-treatment by police, including to the Public Prosecution Office or to the local courts, ensuring the display of this information in all police stations of the Federal and Lännder Police.

Article 15

36. In the light of the previous concluding observations (para. 31), please clarify whether the ban on investigations by police, prosecutors or intelligence agents abroad is still in place and applies also to private security companies engaged in law enforcement activities. How does the State party ensure that these companies do not use coercion as part of their interrogation and investigation practices?

37. Please clarify the procedural standards, including the burden of proof, applied by the German courts when assessing evidence that might have been extracted by torture or ill-treatment, as requested in the previous concluding observations (para. 31).

38. Please provide information to the Committee on steps taken by the State party to ensure that its intelligence service does not automatically rely on information from intelligence services of other countries without prior verification that such information has not been obtained through torture.

Article 16

39. Please also indicate which complaint mechanisms are available to children and which safeguards exist to enforce the law prohibiting corporal punishment and ill-treatment, particularly in schools and institutions that engage in the care of the children. In this regard, please provide disaggregated data from November 2011 and annually thereafter on the number of complaints received on cases of ill-treatment, violence, abuse and negligence in State-run and private institutions for children, and the outcome of any such complaints. Please provide information on the structure and practice of oversight over these institutions by public authorities and independent control mechanisms. Please also provide information on responses to the allegations of ill-treatment in closed institutions for children.

children run by the Haasenburg GmbH in the Länder Brandenburg, including steps taken by the public authorities regarding these allegations.

40. In the light of the previous concluding observations (para. 20) please provide updates since November 2011 on any steps taken by the State party to ensure that the current legal standards and medical practices applied with regard to medical and surgical treatment of intersex persons, at the Federal and Länder levels, guarantee that prior information, orally and in writing, is given to the concerned individuals and their legal guardians, when appropriate, of the suggested treatment as well as the consequences of unnecessary interventions. Please also explain whether the current legal standards and medical practices require mandatory prior consent of the patient and their legal guardians, when appropriate, before the treatment is provided. Please inform the Committee about any training carried out among medical professionals on the range of sexual, biological and physical diversity and the respect of the rights of intersex persons, including their right to free, prior, informed consent to any treatment. Please provide updated data on the number of complaints of incidents of medical treatment on intersex persons without the persons’ effective consent, as well as information on investigations, prosecutions, convictions and penalties in relation to such complaints. Please also provide updates on the legal means of redress provided to intersex people that have been victims of non-consensual surgical and other medical treatment, including legal, medical and psychological aid, and adequate compensation.

41. Please provide detailed data on sterilizations of persons under custodianship and in particular on those sterilizations that have been carried out without prior, free and informed consent. Please report on any steps taken by the State party to amend Section 1905 of the German Civil Code.

General information on other measures and developments relating to the implementation of the Convention in the State party

42. Please provide detailed information on any other relevant legislative, administrative, judicial or other measures taken since the consideration of the previous report that implement the provisions of the Convention or the Committee’s recommendations. This may include institutional developments, plans and programmes, including resources allocated and statistical data or any other information that the State party considers relevant.
